Good cause exists for this enlargement of time (30 additional days) given the time and effort that will be necessary to prepare an appropriate responsive pleading. The second amended complaint involves varied claims by three plaintiffs, comprises 74 pages, and sets forth 27 causes of action in 310 paragraphs. Specifically, the claims of Plaintiff Thressa Walker are as follows:

- Retaliation under FEHA (California Government Code section 12940 (h)) against all defendants. This code section prohibits discrimination based on an individual opposing forbidden practices or filing a complaint relating to such practices.
- Retaliation in violation of California Health and Safety Code section 1278.5 against the County. This code section prohibits retaliation against an individual for complaining to a governmental entity responsible for regulating and accrediting a health facility.
- Retaliation in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against all defendants. Walker alleges that defendants violated her First and Fourteenth Amendment rights by engaging in unlawful retaliation. Walker seeks punitive damages against Brewster.
- 4. Invasion of Privacy against all defendants. Walker seeks punitive damages against Brewster.
- 5. Slander Per Se against all defendants. Walker alleges that the allegations made against her regarding HIPAA violations and her performance were false and slanderous. Walker seeks punitive damages against Brewster.
- Retaliation in violation of California Labor Code section 1102.5 against the County and VMC. This code section prohibits retaliation against a person for disclosing violations of the law to a government agency.
- 7. Intentional Infliction of Emotional Distress against all defendants. Walker seeks punitive damages against Brewster.
